

1. Photos are taken with the Raspberry Pi camera module.

2. In the Raspberry Pi is performed the image processing.

3. Data is validated and send to a database

4. A software analyze and finds correlations between the variables.